

Logan Denholm

Assistant Coach

app.og1.app/p/logan_denholm

Biography

Logan Denholm

Assistant Coach (Catchers/Hitters) • Fifth Season

UC Davis '20

Logan Denholm, a catcher at UC Davis and Sacramento State and more recently a volunteer assistant coach at San Jose State, was hired as Cal Poly's volunteer assistant coach in August 2022. His position was elevated to full-time in 2024.

Denholm is in charge of the catchers and assists Jason Gill with the hitters. He worked with three-year starter Ryan Stafford from 2022-24, Jack Collins in 2025 and Ryan Tayman in 2026, all of whom have played baseball professionally. Tayman hit .357, tied the school record with 18 home runs, broke the putouts mark with 547 and threw out 17 would-be base stealers en route to All-American honors and Big West Conference Co-Field Player of the Year.

Denholm played baseball for four seasons (2017-20) at UC Davis and one more (2021) at Sacramento State before serving as a graduate assistant coach with the Hornets for the 2022 season.

Denholm hit .270 with 11 home runs and 83 RBIs in 162 games at UC Davis before transferring to Sacramento State, where he collected five hits in 21 games (nine starts) with a pair of RBIs and five runs scored in 2021. Denholm produced a walk-off RBI single in a 7-6 win over San Francisco and did not commit an error in 27 fielding chances.

As a junior at UC Davis in 2019, Denholm hit a career-best .295 with 14 doubles, three home runs, 25 RBIs and 27 runs scored en route to second-team All-Big West Conference honors. He hit .280 as a freshman in 2018 and .295 as a senior in 2020, catching all 24 innings of a 4-3 win over Loyola Marymount, a game that lasted 6 hours, 30 minutes over two days in late February.

As a graduate assistant, Denholm assisted primarily with data and analytics responsibilities, as well as baseball operations. He also served as an assistant coach for the Walnut Creek Crawdads summer ball team in the California Collegiate League for the 2021 season.

Denholm is a 2016 graduate of Oak Ridge High School in El Dorado Hills, Calif., where he earned three varsity letters in baseball and hit .376 as a senior with four home runs and 25 RBI en route to first-team All-Metro and All-Sierra Foothill League honors.

Denholm earned his bachelor's degree in managerial economics from UC Davis in 2020.
